

ALL SAINTS DAY

“AS I HAVE DONE FOR YOU,
SO YOU SHOULD ALSO DO FOR OTHERS.”

This festival feast of our church offers us a glimpse of heaven. The book of Revelation tells of heaven’s glory and the brightly robed saints who bear the palm branches of eternal life. St. John tells us in simple and beautiful language something that is more than anyone can imagine: we shall be like God. Jesus has the final word about the inhabitants of heaven. All those blessed with very strange gifts and struggles are the children of God and will inherit everlasting life.

Please Pray For All Our Sick

Ann Brue, Alice Hazel, Joseph LaVarnway, Pearl Sullivan, Joseph Puente, Nancy Lalone, Marie Badger, George Skomsky, and Tim Kirkey.

THE BISHOP’S FUND

Some people will be receiving a follow-up letter from the diocese concerning the Bishop’s Fund. This letter is being sent to parishioners who have contributed to the Bishop’s Fund in the last five years.

Please help the diocese help people in need. If you have never given to the fund before, just put your donation in the plate and we will see that it gets to them.

Our goal this year is same as last year: $34,936.50 and thus far we have donations adding up to: $25,995.50 from 246 families.

Thank you for donating to this very worthwhile cause!!

SIGN OF PEACE AT MASS

With the cold/flu season upon us, parishioners are reminded to take the ordinary precautions of covering their mouths and noses when coughing or sneezing as well as washing hands with soap and hot water (plenty of both are available in our bathrooms).

There are alternative ways of exchanging the sign of peace other than shaking hands, eg nodding and smiling at those around us. All should respect how others choose to express this sign of peace.

There is a cross and candles with the stand holding the Book of Remembrance. You are invited to place the names of deceased family or friends; and they will be remembered at all the Masses during November.

Banners listing the names of parishioners who have died since last November are placed on the front pillars. Thank you, once again, to Dr. Carl Scruggs for making these banners.

ELECTION DAYIS TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3RD.....

As American citizens we have been given the right and privilege of electing to office people to represent us in local, state and federal government. It is an awesome responsibility we need to take seriously to become involved in voting for the people who support our beliefs and traditions. Some people vote only in presidential elections. We need to vote in every election. PLEASE VOTE THIS TUESDAY.
