

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"AS I HAVE DONE FOR YOU, SO YOU SHOULD ALSO DO FOR OTHERS"

As we approach the end of the liturgical year we listen to readings that give us an image of the fulfillment of God's kingdom. We are "warned" to be ready for the final coming of Jesus in glory. Contemplating that glory, we are reminded of the task that lies before us as faithful disciples helping others prepare for that final day of victory when we will "shine like the stars" (1st reading).

Please Pray For All Our Sick

DIOCESAN CHOIR FESTIVAL

St. Mary's Cathedral will be hosting our first ever Diocesan Choir Festival / St. Cecilia Sing on Sunday, November 22, 2009 at 3:00 pm. This is part of an annual program sponsored by the National Association of Pastoral Musician which honors St. Cecilia, the patroness of musicians. Choirs from throughout the Diocese of Ogdensburg have all been invited to participate in this event. During this concert you will hear each of the various choirs singing some of their favorite hymns and anthems, and all choirs will join together to sing the final few songs. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend this very special event to give thanks to God for the gift of music. A light reception will follow. PEOPLE OF HOPE

The beginning lines of today's Gospel sound rather bleak and frightening. The reading from the Gospel of Mark is often called the "Little Apocalypse". Apocalyptic literature is "crisis" literature. It is written for the early Christian community who were undergoing persecution from the Romans. This Gospel writing is meant to give hope and encouragement to the people and to place their trust in the power and might of God. As followers of Jesus, we will undergo trials and persecutions of our faith. What words of Jesus have staying power in your heart during these difficult times? Do you know of someone who is feeling hopeless or defeated? How can you help them open up to the signs of God's care and concern around them?

RCIA - 3 CYCLES ?

As we end this church year, we read from the gospel of Mark for the last Sunday. What has it meant to you? The world we know today can end in many ways, accident, illness, death or loss of a job. What are the things in your life that would survive such a change? How precious are those things to you now? Are they your priorities?
