FROM MSGR. REINERT:

I want to offer a "special thank you" for the warm reception last Sunday and which I continue to receive from the people of the parish and the York community. It may take me a while to get used to being back in "small town Nebraska" but I have honestly not missed Rome for a minute since arriving here. I especially look forward to the opening of the school year, which will give me an opportunity to get to know your families through our students.

Last weekend, I forgot to mention that when I spoke with Pope Benedict XVI on July 7th, he asked me the name of my new parish, "St. Joseph's," I replied. His eyes lighted up and he said, "Well, now we will both be under the same patron, and your people will also have my blessing!"
