The world after Covid-19: a Christian contribution

Last week, Frank Turner SJ mapped out the complex matrix of factors that decision-makers at all levels must take into account as they respond to the Covid-19 pandemic. Now he explains how visions of the human person, and of a society that serves the good of all, which are informed by the Christian tradition can help to focus our attention and shape our language, individually and collectively. The world after Covid-19: a typology of crises

Read part one of Frank Turner SJ's extended commentary, in which he surveys the complex political, economic, environmental and civic terrain to which coronavirus has directed our attention, and from which decisions must be made. Read >>

Lockdown from Lauriston:

The Church after lockdown

In this week's 'Lockdown from Lauriston', Fr Damian Howard SJ, Provincial of the Jesuits in Britain, will discuss the long-term impact of coronavirus on the Church. Join the discussion at 7.30pm on Tues 30 June!

For more details, and recordings of previous talks, visit the Lauriston Jesuit Centre website >>

From the archive: St Peter and St Paul

If you are celebrating the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul today, happy feast! Read about how God's grace worked in their lives, and about their different understandings of the Messiah to whom those lives were dedicated..

Spotlight on scripture: Faith in the gospels

On 30 June, we hear the account of Jesus calming the storm, and on 2 July our gospel is about the men who lowered their friend through a roof so that he might be cured by Jesus. What do we learn about 'faith' from the way in which the word is used in these passages from Matthew's Gospel? Read >>

With best wishes,
